

NCR official stamps are to be supplied by Trodat and all stamps are to conform to the same design.

The stamps can be either multicoloured using orange and black or single colour using black (see accompanying examples).

Due to space constraints and limitations of the processes involved in the creation of rubber stamps, this is the only exception to the clear-space restrictions of the NCR corporate identity